Mike Klisch is a litigation partner with substantial first chair trial experience covering a diverse range of issues in federal and state courts throughout the US. He also has an active state and federal court appellate practice, including complete victories in the 4th, 5th and 11th Circuits and the Virginia and North Carolina State Supreme Courts. Beyond his courtroom experience, Mike has litigated to verdict numerous arbitrations before the AAA, ICC and CPR.

Recognized by Best Lawyers in America for his litigation work, Mike's far-reaching practice covers numerous substantive areas of the law, including antitrust, securities, complex commercial transactions, Internet, contracts, trade secrets and unfair trade practices, business torts, corporate governance, employment, copyright and trademark. Mike's generalist approach to his practice has positioned him to be a dependable, sought out counselor for companies no matter the issue. In recent years, Mike has had a particular emphasis on representing bio science and pharmaceutical companies in high stakes litigation and arbitration matters, including those involving clinical trials, winning multi-year disputes for companies like IQVIA, Patheon and Mutual Pharmaceutical.
