

Bram G. Couvreur

Partner

bcouvreur@cooley.com

+1 310 883 6498

Los Angeles Santa Monica

Los Angeles Downtown

Mergers and Acquisitions

Private Equity

Public Companies

Emerging Companies

Technology

Bram is a member of Cooley's M&A and Private Equity Groups and focuses his practice on all types of private and public merger and acquisition transactions, with a particular emphasis on private equity, cross-border and other complex transactions. He represents financial and strategic buyers and sellers across a variety of industries, including technology, entertainment, digital health and consumer products.

Representative transactions:

- Veritone acquisition of the Broadbean business from CareerBuilder, a portfolio company of Apollo Global Management
- 3D Hubs sale to Protolabs for $280 million
- Carpe Data investment from Thomas H. Lee Partners
- Collibra acquisition of OwIDQ
- Digital Shadows sale to ReliaQuest for $160 million
- Eden Capital acquisition of Wall Street Prep
- Fastly acquisition of Signal Sciences for $775 million
- Gopuff acquisition of BevMo! for $350 million
- H Code Media investment from Falfurrias Capital Partners
- KKW Beauty sale of 20% ownership interest to Coty for $200 million
- Kylie Cosmetics sale of majority stake to Coty for $600 million
- Prodege investment from Great Hill Equity Partners
- The Carlyle Group acquisition of HireVue
- Vertebrae sale to Snap

Bram is fluent in Dutch and French.

Education

Columbia Law School

LLM, 2015

Vlerick Business School
Master in General Management, 2010

University of Paris I Pantheon-Sorbonne/Ghent University
Master of Laws, 2009

Admissions & Credentials

New York

California

Memberships & Affiliations

American Bar Association (ABA)