Addison Pierce advises public and private companies, private equity firms and banks and non-bank lenders in various financing and corporate transactions. His practice includes a broad range of debt financing and capital markets transactions, including acquisition financing, secured and unsecured credit facilities, structured financings (including royalty and synthetic royalty transactions) and high yield and investment grade bond offerings.

Prior to joining Cooley, he was an associate at Shearman & Sterling in London, where his practice focused on representing investment banks in a variety of cross-border, leveraged finance transactions.
