

Arianne Minks

Associate

aminks@cooley.com

+1 202 776 2215

Washington, DC

Capital Markets

Emerging Companies

Mergers and Acquisitions

Public Companies

Venture Capital

Arianne represents public and private companies at all stages of growth. She advises clients throughout the business life cycle on matters such as formation, financings, mergers and acquisitions, and US Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) reporting and compliance.

While at Harvard Law School, Arianne was a student attorney in the Cyberlaw Clinic and a member of the Harvard Journal of Law & Technology and the Harvard Journal of Law & Public Policy. Before practicing law, she held a variety of positions in the federal government, both on Capitol Hill and within various federal financial agencies.

Education

Harvard Law School

JD, 2024

Texas A&M University

BBA, 2017

Admissions & Credentials

District of Columbia

Rankings & Accolades

Harvard Daniel Fellow (2023 – 2024)

SEC Scholar (2022)

US Department of the Treasury – Exceptional Service Award (2021)

Memberships & Affiliations

American Bar Association (ABA)