

Christine Turner

Associate

cturner@cooley.com

Capital Markets
Public Companies

+1 720 566 4163

Colorado

Christine's practice focuses on capital markets transactions. She represents investment banks and late-stage private and public companies in a variety of corporate and securities transactions, including initial public offerings (IPOs), follow-on and secondary offerings, private placements and convertible debt offerings.

Christine's representative transactions include advising:

- Structure Therapeutics in its $185.3 million IPO
- The underwriters in Arcutis Biotherapeutics's $172.5 million follow-on offering
- The underwriters in Apellis Pharmaceuticals's $402.5 million follow-on offering
- The underwriters in IGM Biosciences's $230 million follow-on offering
- The underwriters in Doximity's $697 million IPO
- The underwriters in FIGS' $668 million IPO
- The underwriters in Treace Medical Concepts' $220 million IPO
- ZoomInfo Technologies in its $1.07 billion IPO*

Christine's representative private placements include advising:

- The placement agent in Vertex Energy's $155 million offering of convertible senior notes
- The placement agent in Porch Group's $333.3 million offering of convertible senior notes
- The placement agent in New Mountain Finance Corporation's $200 million offering of convertible senior notes

 Representation handled prior to joining Cooley*

Before joining Cooley, Christine was a capital markets associate in the New York office of Simpson Thacher & Bartlett. Christine also served as a law clerk to Vice Chancellor Sam Glasscock III on the Delaware Court of Chancery during the 2015 – 2016 term.

While in law school, Christine served as managing editor of the Duke Law Journal.

Education

Duke University School of Law

JD, 2015

Boston College

BA, 2010

Admissions & Credentials

New York

Colorado

Memberships & Affiliations

New York State Bar Association