

Nick Davis

Partner in Charge – Seattle

ndavis@cooley.com

+1 206 452 8749

Seattle

Mergers and Acquisitions

Public Companies

Emerging Companies

Corporate Governance and Shareholder Engagement

Venture Capital

Technology

Digital Media and Entertainment

Ecommerce + Marketplace

Nick represents public and private companies in connection with a variety of US and cross-border transactions, including mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, carve outs and other complex business transactions. While most active in the technology sector, Nick's experience includes representation of companies across a broad range of industries, such as media and entertainment, life sciences, retail, agribusiness, transportation and business services.

During his time at the University of San Diego School of Law, Nick was staff editor of the San Diego International Law Journal.

Nick's recent transactions include representing:

- Algorithmia in its sale to DataRobot*
- Auth0 in its sale to Okta for $6.5 billion*
- BitTitan in its sale to Idera*
- BitTitan in its acquisition of Perspectium*
- Daybreak Games in its sale to EG7*
- Costco in its acquisition of Innovent for $1 billion*
- Microsoft in various transactions, including acquisitions of Suplari, CloudKnox Security, FSLogix, Semantic Machines, Avere Systems, Mobile Data Labs and Sunrise Atelier*
- Orion Systems Integrators in its sale to One Equity Partners*
- Pacific Market International in its sale to The HAVI Group*
- Weyerhaeuser Co. in its agreement to sell to Nippon Paper Industries for $285 million in cash*
- Xenon arc in its sale to Peak Rock Capital*

*Transaction handled prior to joining Cooley

Education

New York University School of Law

LLM, 2011

University of San Diego School of Law

JD, 2011

University of Washington

BBA, 2007

Admissions & Credentials

Washington

Rankings & Accolades

Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch for 2022