

Kaitland Kennelly

Partner

kkennelly@cooley.com

+1 212 479 6643

New York

Commercial Litigation
Securities Litigation + Enforcement
Class Action Litigation
White Collar Defense and Investigations
Pro Bono

Kaitland's practice encompasses high-stakes commercial disputes, class actions, internal investigations and investigations by the US Department of Justice, the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and the Federal Trade Commission (FTC). Her corporate clients range from early-stage startups to publicly traded companies representing numerous industries, including life sciences, consumer goods, financial services and software as a service. Kaitland also maintains an active pro bono practice, focusing primarily on immigration, LGBTQ+ and reproductive justice matters.

Kaitland's representative matters include:

- Defending a mortgage lender in a class action alleging violations of the New Jersey mortgage lending statute
- Representing a biopharmaceutical company in two lawsuits brought against a former executive asserting claims for breach of contract and violations of federal securities laws
- Defending a former executive of a pharmaceutical company in an SEC investigation, securities class action and related opt-out cases
- Representing a multinational company in an internal investigation concerning potential public misstatements and incidents of insider trading by employees at a subsidiary entity
- Defending a consumer electronics company in a class action alleging violations of the New Jersey Consumer Fraud Act and the US Computer Fraud and Abuse Act
- Representing an international nonprofit in an internal investigation concerning allegations of fraud, kickbacks and foreign bribery
- Representing a luxury goods company in a trade secrets action against a competitor
- Representing an ecommerce company in an expedited internal investigation concerning potential breaches of fiduciary duties by members of management and the board
- Representing a software as a service company in an internal investigation concerning potential Foreign Corrupt Practices Act violations
- Defending a video-conferencing service provider in FTC, state attorneys general and international regulatory investigations concerning the company's practices under Section 5 of the FTC Act
- Defending a group of UK-based individual and institutional investors in a US bankruptcy court adversary proceeding

- Authoring an amicus brief addressing the harms inflicted on Asian American and Pacific Islander women by Tennessee abortion bans
- Obtaining a grant of asylum for a lesbian woman who fled Russia after multiple homophobic attacks

In 2020, Kaitland was named an On the Rise – Top 40 Young Lawyer by the American Bar Association.

Education

University of California, Berkeley School of Law
JD, 2013

Hunter College of the City University of New York
BA, 2010

Admissions & Credentials

New York

Court Admissions

US Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit

US Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit

US District Court for the Eastern District of New York

US District Court for the Southern District of New York