

Nancy Kostakos

Chief Marketing Officer

nkostakos@cooley.com

+1 617 937 1433

Boston

Nancy leads a team of innovative marketing and business development professionals who focus on differentiating and elevating Cooley's position in key markets. Her team drives strategic business development initiatives, and is responsible for brand leadership and development, digital and traditional marketing, communications and public relations, social media, thought leadership, client and prospect relationship development, and enhanced client service initiatives. Nancy has 25 years of marketing and business development leadership experience in Am Law 50 firms. Prior to her law firm marketing career, Nancy held marketing positions in the fashion design and architecture industries.

Education

Harvard University
AB,